The meeting took place from 12.15 to 1.30 in Room 410 of the Mathematics Building at QMUL.

2. Apologies: David Conlon, Iain Moffatt, David Penman. The student representative, Trevor Pinto, had resigned.

3. The minutes of the meeting held on 14 May 2015 were presented and again approved.

4. The minutes of the meeting held on 8 July 2015 were approved.

5. Matters arising
   A report on any colloquium supported by the Committee should appear on the website soon after the event. This should contain numbers attending; the finances can be done later.

6. The annual report for 2014–2015 was approved. It was submitted to the Scottish Charities Commission on 16 May.

7. Financial report from the Treasurer
   Keith presented this and it was approved.

8. British Combinatorial Bulletin
   There was no comment on this, apart from re-iterating that the current format should continue.

9. BCC26 at Strathclyde: 3–7 July 2017
   (a) Sergey reported that he had applied for grants to the London Mathematical Society, the Edinburgh Mathematical Society and the Glasgow Mathematical Journal.
   (b) It was suggested that the non-invited talks should be arranged as mini-symposia.
   (c) Referees for the invited papers were suggested and mostly agreed.

10. Right to Work
    The recent rules from the Home Office were noted.

11. EPSRC Landscape Document for Combinatorics
    The latest version was briefly discussed. It was noted that Daniela Kuhn had replaced James as Lead Author.
12. Date and venue of next meeting
   This will be next May during the 2-day London Colloquia.

13. Any other business
   It was reported that, so far, there is no candidate for BCC27 in 2019.

JWPH